

No.J-11012/01/2014-RH
Government of India
Ministry of Rural Development
Department of Rural Development

Krishi Bhawan, New Delhi,
Dated : 12th December, 2014.

1. The Secretary/Principal Secretary,
Rural Development Department,
All State Govts/UTs.

2. All DRDAs.

Subject: Amendment of IAY Guidelines in terms of Tibetan Rehabilitation Policy, 2014 issued by the Ministry of ZHome Affairs – regarding.

Sir,

I am directed to say that as per the Tibetan Rehabilitation Policy, 2014 issued by the Ministry of Home Affairs, the benefits of various development schemes of the Government of India have to be extended to the Tibetan Refugees. In order to extend the benefits of IAY to the Tibetan Refugees, the following amendments have been made in the IAY Guidelines:-

| Existing provision | Revised provision |
|---|---|
| 4.1 Implementation approaches The implementation strategy for IAY needs to be developed by each State by balancing the needs and advantages of habitation or cluster approach and individual household approach. In order to achieve economies in construction and provide a bouquet of basic minimum needs to poor families and ease of extension and monitoring, IAY should be implemented following the habitation approach, as far as possible. All habitations of the following categories may be covered on priority to achieve saturation:- <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. PTGs2. Beneficiary families of the Forest Rights Act | 4.1 Implementation approaches The implementation strategy for IAY needs to be developed by each State by balancing the needs and advantages of habitation or cluster approach and individual household approach. In order to achieve economies in construction and provide a bouquet of basic minimum needs to poor families and ease of extension and monitoring, IAY should be implemented following the habitation approach, as far as possible. All habitations of the following categories may be covered on priority to achieve saturation:- <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. PTGs2. Beneficiary families of the Forest Rights Act |

