OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject:-Procedure to be followed after exhausting the list of beneficiaries under different categories in the permanent wait list under IAY.

As per the existing IAY Guidelines, permanent wait list are to be prepared for IAY for different categories of beneficiaries. Now, some States have informed that the wait list (s) have been exhausted in certain places and have sought the procedure to be followed.

It is clarified that once the permanent wait list is exhausted, a new list may be prepared temporarily for the relevant categories(s) of beneficiaries by including eligible persons who are below the poverty line, following a transparent and participatory process which should also include an appellate system.
